Nov 7 - 15, 2022

8:30am–4:00pm MST

Introduction to Restorative Practices: Nov 7-8th

Monday – Tuesday ($350)
Participants will explore the fundamental values and principles of restorative practices, and will have opportunities to learn and practice connection circles, restorative language and conversations, and restorative agreement meetings. Basic implementation issues will be covered.

Restorative Mediation & Conferencing*: Nov 10-11th

Thursday - Friday ($350)
Participants will learn how restorative mediation and conferencing can be used to address conflict and harm. Each roleplay will have an experienced coach.

Active Implementation & Evaluation*: Nov 14-15th

Monday – Tuesday ($375)
Participants will learn how to implement and evaluate restorative practices sustainably and with fidelity at the school or district level. (Higher cost due to the $35 book you get!)

Prerequisites required.*

Attendees receive CEU credits, resource materials, snacks, a complimentary copy of The Little Book of Restorative Justice in Education and/or Implementing Restorative Practices in Schools, and continued consultation support.

Gain Critical Understanding and Practical Tools to Build & Sustain a Restorative School Culture

Implementing restorative practices is about supporting the hearts and minds of your students, teachers, staff, and parents so they are focused on strengthening and repairing relationships to establish and maintain healthy and productive learning communities. The focus isn't just on discipline and responding to behavior concerns. The focus must also be on building connections as a way to prevent problems from occurring in the first place.

This is not “a program” to implement in your school. It is bigger than this...it's about shifting your entire school culture. The restorative school sees restorative practices as “just a part of how we do things around here”, instead of an occasional tool we use when a child is in trouble.

The possibilities and the potential for transformative change in your school is enormous. The hard work is about aligning principles, values, and prevailing beliefs about the most effective ways to build community. This is an evidence-based approach that is done with your students and staff...not done to your students and staff.

From every day tools for the classroom to school and district-wide implementation strategies, learn about how to achieve dramatic results with Restorative Practices.
